Notes to Parents/Guardians

To ensure success of Cambridge Chinese School (CCS) programs, parents/guardians are requested to take notice of the following regulations:

1. Cooperation of parents/guardians with CCS is required. Please let your child understand that following student rules, respecting teachers, being courteous, and maintaining discipline are required in all CCS programs.
2. The CCS classes are held following each program's schedule. Please take students to assigned program/programs and pick them up on time. Please note that there is a fine for picking up late in the after-school program and the summer program. Parents/guardians and students are requested to remain in designated areas and do not enter private areas.
3. Parents/guardians are responsible to pay tuition on time, please refer "CCCC Fees and Refund Policies" attached in the Application Form for details.
4. Parents/guardians and students are requested to respect school property. Parents/guardians should understand that conducting any unauthorized activity in school community is not allowed (e.g., sending unauthorized email to school mailing list, put unauthorized advertise in school post area, etc); parents/guardians should also understand that compensation must be made for damaging school property; for any serious violations to school regulations, the school reserves the right to issue warnings, expulsions, or law enforcement, which ever apply.
5. Last, but most important, please do not let your child bring any dangerous articles or valuable items to CCS. While students in their assigned program, CCS is responsible for their safety. After assigned program, parents are responsible for the safety of their child/children. No children younger than 4.9 years are allowed to stay in school by themselves; no children younger than twelve are allowed to leave the school by themselves; parents should take the consequences if they leave their younger one in school without attending any school program. Parents/guardians must sign the Emergency Consent Form. The CCS, teachers, and staff members will not assume the responsibility for any accidents incurred during participation in the CCS programs. If parents or doctor can't be reached in case of an emergency, consent is hereby given that the student receives medical treatment.
6. The afterschool program is using the Cambridge Public School (CPS) spaces, we are adopting the Cambridge public school teachers, students, and parent's policies and guidelines.
